

Upcoming Workshop:

Groundwater Recharge - Solutions for San Luis Obispo County

Friday, May 12, 2017

The SLO County Recharge Workgroup is holding a half-day workshop focused on the potential for using stormwater to recharge groundwater supplies in the County.

Date: May 12, 2017

Time: Program: 9:00 - 12:30; check-in and coffee starts at 8:30, and lunch follows the program

Location: San Luis Obispo County Veteran's Hall, 801 Grand Avenue (link to map)

Cost: No charge to attend; advanced registration is required, please register at this website:

<http://ucanr.edu/slo-recharge>

Agenda:

- 8:30 – 9:00 Check-in, coffee & pastries
- 9:00 – 9:10 Welcome, overview of recharge opportunities
- 9:10 – 9:25 Central Coast water conditions: recycled, stormwater, streamflow
- 9:25 – 9:40 Sustainable Groundwater Management Act
- 9:40 – 10:00 Examples of storm water capture in world agriculture
- 10:00 – 10:30 Recharge on agricultural lands
- 10:30 – 10:45 Break
- 10:45 – 11:10 Potential for recharge on the Central Coast
- 11:10 – 11:30 Potential for recharge in San Luis Obispo County
- 11:30 – 12:00 Panel of practitioners:
 - On-farm recharge basin
 - Fox Hollow Reservoir
 - Huer Huero as a regional example
- 12:00 – 12:30 Summary audience participation – Next steps
- 12:30 – 1:30 Lunch, courtesy of the SLO Farm Bureau

Questions? Please contact Mark Battany at 805-781-5948 or mcbattany@ucanr.edu

This workshop is sponsored by the SLO County Recharge Workgroup, whose members include representatives from the University of CA Cooperative Extension, SLO County Farm Bureau, SLO County Department of Public Works, SLO County Department of Agriculture/Weights and Measures, SLO County Administrative Office, Coastal San Luis and Upper Salinas Las Tablas Resource Conservation Districts, and the Central Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board.