

Webinar

Tuesday, Oct. 19, 2021 ▪ 9:00 AM-12:00 PM PST

Cost: $20/$30

Click HERE to register

This webinar is pending approval for continuing education credit.

Managing Weeds in Grasslands and Rangelands

- 9:00-9:10 Welcome ▪ Whitney Brim-DeForest, Sutter-Yuba County Director and Rice Advisor, UCCE Sutter-Yuba, Placer, and Sacramento Counties
- 9:10-9:35 Grassland and rangeland weeds in California ▪ Rebecca Ozeran, Livestock and Natural Resources Advisor, UCCE Fresno and Madera Counties
- 9:35-10:00 Dusting rangelands with compost: examining the potential benefits ▪ Scott Oneto, Farm Advisor, UCCE Central Sierra (El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras, and Tuolumne Counties)
- 10:00-10:25 Grazing for weed control: Are weeds palatable and nutritious, or just a nuisance and poisonous? ▪ Royce Larsen, Area Natural Resource/Watershed Advisor, UCCE San Luis Obispo, Monterey, and Santa Barbara Counties
- 10:25-10:35 Break
- 10:35-11:00 Update on invasive weed control trials in Northeastern California ▪ Tom Getts, Weed Ecology and Cropping Systems Advisor, UCCE Lassen, Modoc, Plumas, and Sierra Counties
- 11:00-11:25 Managing weedy grasses in grasslands in Southern California ▪ Chris McDonald, San Bernardino County Co-Director and Inland and Desert Natural Resources Advisor, UCCE San Bernardino, Imperial, Riverside, and San Diego Counties
- 11:25-11:50 Key ecological principles to guide adaptive management of grassland weeds under variable conditions ▪ Valerie Eviner, Professor and Ecologist, Dept. of Plant Sciences, UC Davis
- 11:50-12:00 Final Q&A and wrap up

Sponsored by

UC Cooperative Extension ▪ UC Davis, Dept. of Plant Sciences ▪ UC Weed Research & Information Center

