

University of California Cooperative Extension
Master Gardener Program
San Luis Obispo County
Presents:
A Sustainable Landscaping Symposium

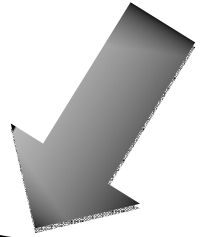

Saturday, April 9, 2011

8:00 am – 1:00 pm

Paso Robles Culinary Arts Academy

1900 Golden Hill Road, Paso Robles, CA

Cost: $45.00 (includes Continental Breakfast)

Register online at:

<http://ucanr.org/symposium>

Featuring:

- Keynote address and book signing by Brad Lancaster Author of Rainwater Harvesting for Drylands and Beyond!
- Exciting lessons in energy conservation and landscaping with native plants by Mary Bianchi, UCCE and Nancy Hartwick, Master Gardener.

Don't miss San Luis Obispo County's Symposium dedicated to sustainable landscaping!

- Learn about the latest trends in sustainability, using rain water & greywater, designing resource efficient landscapes...and much more!
- Network with professionals and enthusiasts!
- Walk away with practical tools you can use right away!

For more information visit us online at <http://ucanr.org/sites/mgslo/>

SLO County Sustainable Landscaping Symposium

Keynote address and book signing by Brad Lancaster
Author of *Rainwater Harvesting for Drylands and Beyond

April 09, 2011
Paso Robles Culinary Arts Academy
1900 Golden Hill Road
Paso Robles, CA
8:00am – 1:00pm

Please Register Online:
<http://ucanr.org/symposium>

*Your paid reservation is transferable
but not refundable*

Questions? Please call (805) 781-5940

Tickets $45

Register early – Seating is limited!

Visit us online:

<http://ucanr.org/sites/mgslo/>

If you would prefer to pay by check:
Please fill out this form and mail it with your remittance of $45
Payable to UC Regents

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email Address: _____

Mail to:
UCCE
Symposium
2156 Sierra Way, Suite C
San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

Thank you!

A registration acknowledgement card will be sent to you.