Work Ranch Benefit Trail Ride

By: Leanna Meade, Estrella 4-H

Have you seen the rolling hills of California from horseback? If not, the Work Family Ranch is the perfect place for a relaxing trail ride, it has been a ranch for over one hundred years. On February 13th a benefit trail-ride was held supporting the Partners in Equestrian Therapy. I represented the Estrella 4H horse project. Partners in Equestrian Therapy is a unique riding program for children and adults with special needs. The non-profit organization strives to increase physical skills, confidence and self-esteem through therapeutic horseback riding. Their service spreads across California’s central coast, including Paso Robles, Atascadero, San Luis Obispo, Five Cities, Santa Maria, and Santa Barbara.

The morning began with coffee and conversation but soon everyone was saddled up and ready to go. After a quick warm-up in the arena the riders headed out and followed the trail guide into the lush hills of the Work Family Ranch. After an hour and a half, the ride came to an end, but the fun didn’t stop there. The riders walked to a large covered area where they were treated to delicious food and a local musician. When the spectacular event ended the riders left knowing their charity was appreciated and beneficial to Partners in Equestrian Therapy.

Creston is in its first year of having an Archery group and it has become very popular. We have 13 members signed up. We have had several meetings this year and it’s always lots of fun.

Archery is so interesting that several members from our group even did their presentations about it.

We have learned safety rules, how to string a bow, and even how to make a homemade pin sight. We get to shoot special targets like balloons, and stars.

Special Thank You

We would like to thank a few people that have helped us get going.

They are: Tim Mason, Oak Creek Ranch, and Rohrers Hay & Feed for the hay bales and Central Coast Archery for helping us out with our bows and setting them up.

The Edna 4-H Dairy Cattle Project members attended and judged the Western Classic Junior Dairy Show on March 5, 2016 at the Kings County Fairgrounds in Hanford.

Dairy Cows are judged on frame and size, dairy strength, feet and legs, and most importantly, the udder. Dairy Heifers are judged on general appearance, dairy character, feet and legs, and size. There were a total of five classes with four cows or heifers in each class. The classes included Holstein and Jersey Cows and Heifers.

Three teams represented Edna 4-H with over 70 California 4-H members judging. Both the teams and individuals received placement. Here’s how the Edna 4-H members placed:

* Edna Gold Team: 5th place Overall (out of 15 teams) and 4th place Holstein (Jonah G., Daphne H., Katrina V., and Willem V.)

* Edna Green Team: 8th place Overall (out of 15 teams) (Tobin G., Daisy H., Amber Q., and Jordan R.)

* Edna Silver Team: 2nd place Overall (out of 5 teams with 2 persons) (Berlyn E. and Levi G.)

Individual Awards went to:

* Levi G.: 4th place Jersey

* Amber Q.: 5th place Overall

Special thanks to our 4-H Project Leader Alan VanderHorst who helped us prepare for the show to learn how to judge Dairy Cattle. Edna 4-H Dairy Cattle Project ROCKS!!!

The Cerro Alto 4-H Dairy Goat and Meat Goat project groups teamed up for a community service project. We met on March 18th to prepare Easter baskets for the kids at the RISE Women’s Shelter in Paso Robles. Our next meeting is April 4th.

That’ll Do, Jack
On February 20th, 2016, the Los Osos Pets and Small Animals group visited Jack, Jim, Ben and other border collies at Temple Border Collie ranch in Atascadero. The owner and handler, Fred Temple, gave a demonstration of the dogs in action herding sheep. He also talked about sheep herding as a profession or a hobby. The 4-Hers learned several verbal commands and whistles used to guide the dogs. They also learned about sheep breeds, tagging, and use in competition. All the 4-H’ers enjoyed meeting the dogs and sheep, and they all want to thank Fred Temple for taking the time to make it fun and educational for all of us.

On February 20th, I attended the Youth Leadership Workshop. I was lucky to represent Estrella 4-H. We talked about speaking well in public and how to conduct fundraising activities. We also talked about what makes a good leader. We learned that it is good to be open to new ideas.

We also played two very fun games. I met many new friends and had a really good time. We all agreed that we should treat each other with respect. I am looking forward to bringing these lessons back to my club. Submitted by: MaKayla M., Estrella 4-H Club Reporter

On Monday, March 14th, the El Camino 4-H Rabbit Group did a presentation on how to care for your rabbit. They brought rabbits and showed how to groom them properly. Submitted by: Gina M., Reporter
